It is about time for candidates who propose to run for office at the next city election, to raise their hands. "The early bird catches the worm," and the fellow who is on time with his announcement is apt to gobble the office.

Yesterday was the bluest day of the season, and being Sunday the blue was more visible than it would have been on a working day. Thin congregations in the churches were a part of the result of the clouds and storm.

Miss Wilson drew a fair bouquet at the tabernacle on Saturday evening, and her address pleased all who heard it. Were she to come again she would doubtless draw a still larger audience.

Pork packing will begin in earnest with the first freezing weather. The low price of hogs will make packing a tolerably safe operation with those who are prepared to go into it to advantage.

The Maroon News says "The Maroon company has tendered a vote of thanks to the fire companies of Clinton and Decatur for the prompt manner in which they responded, respectively, to the call from this place on Wednesday."

Yesterday regular quarterly meeting services were held at the U. B. Church, Rev. L. Field, presiding elder, officiating, assisted by the pastor Rev. Mr. Chittenden. On account of the poor attendance was not large, but the services were of a highly interesting character. The new pastor is giving the best of satisfaction, and the congregation is steadily increasing under his ministrations.

There was a little boarding-house row about a brunette at a domicile on North Water street last Friday morning, which ended in a stand up and knock down fight between a clerk and telegraph operator. The operator came off with flying colors, and the clerk, who has since changed his boarding place, wears his hat on one side of his head. No arrests.

Our item concerning the North Street Church, Danville, was not accurate. Rev. N. P. Heath reported his salary at $1650 his last year, and Dr. Goodwin's was $1400 his first year—the same that Mr. Parker now gets. On account of the hard times Dr. Goodwin's salary the second year was reduced, but as the times are now better, and the charge in better condition than for many years, and as Mr. Parker's family is larger than the former pastor's, his salary very properly increased to the former amount. Our former item was misleading, and this correction is due to all parties.

MACON COUNTY CIRCUIT COURT.

December Term, 1918.

MONDAY, DEC. 2d.

Court convened at 1 o'clock p. m., Judge W. E. Nelson presiding. The empanelling of grand and petit jurors, and the charge of the court to the former, occupied the first hour or more of the session, after which the call of the docket was proceeded with.

THIRTEEN YEARS AGO.—Chas. W. Munley, manager, etc., who will take the part of the "King of Tartary" in the play of "Mazeppa" at the opera house to-night, is the same comedian who made so much fun for the boys—now grown old—in Powers' Hall thirteen years ago. It will be remembered that a certain minister, still living, attacked Munley and his company from his pulpit, denouncing the show as very immoral, and declared in the strongest terms that it was impossible for an actress to be a virtuous woman. It was a terrible slur at the company, and created much comment and a great deal of feeling. The upshot of the whole business was, Munley and his company got the sympathy of the people and played to crowded houses every night for three months. After the performances were over, Munley and the gentleman and ladies of the company were invited out to the private residences of leading citizens, (whose names could be given, if necessary,) and treated and feasted like ambassadors from a foreign clime. Munley is as full of fun as ever, and returns to Decatur after an absence of 18 years, anxious to meet his old friends and thank them again for their kindly courtesies and substantial aid.

DRAMATIC.—The beautiful and talented actress, Miss Fannie Louise Buckingham, makes her first appearance at the opera house to-night, in her wonderful impersonation of "Mazeppa." The New York Herald thus speaks of Miss Buckingham and her entertainment as given at Niblo's garden, in that city: "Miss Fannie Louise Buckingham, whose debut at the Broadway Theatre as 'Mazeppa' was noticed in these columns at the beginning of last season, appeared in the same role at Niblo's garden last evening. Miss Buckingham has gained in self confidence and familiarity with the stage since we saw her last, and now goes through her performance without any drawbacks arising from inexperience. She is not seen at her best until she appears with her 'dery, untamed steed,' 'James Melville,' lashed to his back, tearing up and down the postulated rocks, when she is the very picture of a despairing figure and her riding, as her strong point. The audience was enthusiastic, and gave cheer upon cheer when 'Mazeppa' appeared at tent-door like a nymph surprised at the bath, and seizing two swords, with one in each hand, drove back the conquering Tartar. At the end of the act the actress was called before the curtain.

VERY LIGHT.—The "Boarding House Troupe" played to a good house Saturday night, and kept the audience in a constant roar of laughter. Fitzpatrick as Gullpot, who wanted to fly away to the celestial realm above, but couldn't, owing to the magnetic influences of the earth, and Miss Manheim, got into so many ridiculous scrapes and got out again so easily, that the audience fairly roared with merriment. No doubt the dining room scene was true to life. It seemed very natural, but we don't remember ever hearing "hash" called out so loudly. Waiter girls are generally a little faint, when they come to that word. Leonard Grover has a good company and a good play—for the kind.

PASTORATE CLOSED.—Eld. N. S. Haynes, who has so faithfully and acceptably served the Christian church as its pastor during the last five years, has closed his labors with that congregation, though he will not remove from the city at present. Mr. Haynes has not only been much liked by his own people during his stay here, but he is held in high esteem by all both as a minister and citizen. All will regret to have him move from the city, which he will probably do as soon as he can dispose of his residence property.

REVOLUTION OF SYMPATHY.—The Sunday morning class at Stapp's Chapel, of which Mr. Wm. Bowers has been the faithful leader, passed the following resolution on Sunday morning:

Resolved, That in the bereavement of our leader, Rev. Wm. Bowers, we sincerely sympathize with him and pray that God may sustain him and his family under the sad dispensation of Providence.

Malignant and Subtle.—The poison of Scrofula, and terrible are its ravages in the system. They may, however, be permanently stayed and the destructive virus expelled from the circulation by Scott's Blood and Liver Balm, a potent vegetable detergent, which eradicates all skin diseases, leaving no vestige of them behind. White swelling, salt rheum, tetter, abscesses, liver complaint, and eruptions of every description are invariably cured by it.—Sold by S. M. Irwin, the Live Druggist, Decatur. [20-dim]

FUNERAL OF MRS. O. H. McBRIDE.

A large concourse of people gathered at Stapp's Chapel this forenoon at ten o'clock to attend the funeral of the lamented Mrs. Annie E. McBride, wife of Oliver H. McBride, and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Bowers. The services were conducted by Rev. S. MacBarney, assisted by Rev. F. N. Ewing and Rev. W. H. Prentley. The preliminary services consisted of singing, prayer, and the reading of appropriate selections of scripture, the singing being executed by Prof. Lutz and Dr. Bamstead, Mrs. A. W. Conklin and Mrs. S. Burgess, with Miss Nellie Millikin presiding at the organ. At the conclusion of the introductory exercises, Rev. S. MacBarney delivered an eloquent, appropriate and feeling discourse from the words, "She hath done what she could," in which the amiable character and useful life of deceased were commented upon in fitting terms. During the services many eyes in the audience moistened with tears, and a feeling of deep sympathy for the sorrow-stricken relatives seemed to pervade the entire audience.

The floral decorations were of the most appropriate kind and were arranged with the most excellent taste, bespeaking on the part of those by whom they were brought, hearts deeply imbued with respect for the departed, and moved with tenderest sympathy for surviving friends.

At the conclusion of the deeply impressive services at the church, the remains were borne to their final resting place in Greenwood Cemetery, followed by a large concourse of neighbors and friends.

"STRAIGHTENED OUT."

We would most respectfully call the attention of the public in general to our stock of Diamonds, Watches, Chains, Clocks, Jewelry, solid and silver-plated Ware, etc. We have just completed the repairs which have been in progress for the last three weeks, and now occupy the whole store where we always have been. We have on hand the largest and most complete stock in the state of Illinois, outside of Chicago. Our stock consists of everything kept by first-class Jewelry Houses. We would like also to add that our stock being bought in large quantities, and only for cash, we are enabled to give prices lower than ever before. We will be pleased to have everybody call and see our goods and prices, whether you want to buy or not—we will always take pleasure in showing you goods and prices. Remember you will have at our store from which to make your selections, twice the assortment you will be able to find in the combined stocks of Jewelry in Decatur. Come and see the goods and prices.

Respectfully, C. E. Ewing, Jeweler, 23 E. Main st., Decatur, Ill. Dec. 2-dim

TAKEN CARE OF.—The various committees connected with the thanksgiving temperance society, met at the First House parlor on Friday evening, Nov. 20th, D. L. Hann, chairman, Dr. J. S. King, secretary. The several committees reported, bills were presented and allowed. The treasurer of the committee, Theo. Nelson, reported the total receipts to have been $252.50, total expenses, $17.00, leaving a balance of $235.50 on hand, which amount was ordered to be paid over to the treasurer of the fair. On motion, the thanks of the ladies and gentlemen who discoursed sweet music on the occasion; to the press of the city for notices made gratuitously; to J. H. Lewis for dishes furnished; and to the public for their liberal patronage. On motion, the secretary was instructed to have this much of the proceedings of the meeting published in the city papers.

DELICIOUS PERFUMES.

Dr. Price has prepared a rich variety of perfumes, from which the most fastidious can select an odor with agreeable satisfaction. Dr. Price's Pet Rose, Meadow Flowers, and other perfumes, are great favorites, as their sweetness and freshness are so decided.

DIED.

At his late residence, near Haverhill, on the 29th of November, Mr. Arthur L. Laxson, aged 70 years.

Mr. L. has been a resident of this county since 1829, having lived during that time on the same farm. He leaves a son and daughter, the former living on the homestead farm and the latter in Kansas. The funeral took place on Saturday, November 30th. Deceased was a highly respected member of the M. E. Church, and was greatly esteemed as an honorable and upright citizen.

In this city, on Saturday evening, William Dwyer, youngest child of Thomas and Susie Sanderson, aged two months.

LIVER IS KING.

The liver is the imperial organ of the whole human system, as it controls the life, health and happiness of man. When it is disturbed in its proper action, all kinds of ailments are the natural result. The digestion of food, the movements of the heart and blood, the action of the brain and nerves, are all intimately connected with the workings of the liver. It has been successfully proved that Green's August Flower is unequalled in curing all persons afflicted with Dyspepsia or Liver Complaint, and all the numerous symptoms that result from an unhealthy condition of the liver and stomach. Sample bottles to try, 10 cents. Positively sold in all towns on the Western Continent. Three doses will prove that it is just what you want. Aug. 9-dim

PERSONAL MENTION.

Geo. Powers, of Jacksonville, arrived in the city on Saturday night.

Mr. D. P. Keller, of Macon, visited Decatur for a short time to-day.

Capt. Joab Wilkinson, of Natick, made himself visible in Decatur to-day.

Miss Minnie Parker returned to Champaign at noon to-day.

Leonard Glover's "Boarding House" troupe left for Lincoln at noon to-day where they will show to-night.

Hon. R. H. Woodcock, chairman of the Board of Supervisors, favored us with a brief call this morning.

Dr. R. Tobey, of Blue Mound, was a caller at the Republican office this afternoon.

The Fannie Louise Buckingham Company came in yesterday morning from Lafayette, and registered at the St. Nicholas. J. E. Noble, business agent for the Wallace Sisters, gave the Republican office a call to-day.

James Lichtner, of Whitmore township, at the opening of court this afternoon, was appointed foreman of the grand jury.

Mrs. Kimball, mother of the editor of the Sun, who has been in the city for a week past visiting her son, returned to Danville on the noon train.

P. A. Green and Prior Moore, two colored ministers preached at the African M. E. Church yesterday, the former in the morning and the latter in the evening.

Mrs. Geo. W. Emmons left for Quincy Saturday afternoon, to be absent a week or ten days, on a visit to her brother, Capt. Follansbee, formerly chief of police of that stirring town.

Maude Branscombe, the beautiful actress, whose cabinet portrait is on exhibition in nearly every book store in the city, dined with her husband at the St. Nicholas yesterday.

Fred Smith is always in luck. No sooner is he out of the grocery business than his name appears in the list of petit jurors for the first two weeks of the December term of court. Fred is add-on out of a job.

Rev. G. S. Allen, of California, the fierce-looking temperance advocate who was here with Murphy last October, spent Sunday in Decatur, and left to-day for Lincoln, where he is looked for a temperance speech to-night.

Corbelle Hippolite is the name of the man now on the streets afflicted with "St. Vitus' Dance," and begging from door to door. He hails from Chicago. It is questionable whether a man in his condition should be permitted to go at large frightening women and children.

Dr. J. S. King was summoned to Tolono this morning by telegram to attend upon Mr. J. R. Talbot, who is laboring under temporary insanity, which it is thought has been induced by the mortification experienced on account of having been suspected of larceny and having his trunk searched by an officer.

Dr. W. J. Cheasworth returned from Morley, Mo., to-day, after an absence of two weeks. He left the hunting party in excellent health, and enjoying the delights of a hunting expedition hugely.—Packard, Harry and Shellabarger are the crack shots of the party. The doctor brought home about one hundred pounds of fish, and expresses himself very much pleased with his trip.

A PROBLEM LONG SINCE SOLVED.

How to remedy those profligate causes of disease, an impoverished circulation and an impaired digestion, was a problem the solution of which had often baffled medical skill, but which was solved over a quarter of a century ago by the introduction of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters to public and professional notice. Since that time, which may well be said to have initiated a new epoch in the history of medicine, the remedy and preventive referred to has obtained a foothold in the confidence of the American people that each succeeding year has only served to strengthen. It is recognized throughout the Union as a tonic of the first order, a remedy for and sure means of preventing fever and ague, and disorders of the stomach and bowels, as a reliable means of reforming a disordered state of the liver, and of counteracting a tendency to rheumatism, gout, urinary and uterine disorders. EVENING JOURNAL.

ANNOUNCEMENT FOR 1879.

A Reliable Local, Political, Commercial and General Newspaper.

The CHICAGO EVENING JOURNAL, daily, weekly and weekly commands itself to the attention of the reading public for the reasons following:

1. It publishes all the news of the day from all parts of the country and the world.

2. It is a faithful exponent of the interests of the people and of the best sense and sentiment of the land and of the nation.

3. It is a reliable and trustworthy source of information in its statements, and in its opinions, and in its character and quality of its contents.

4. It has no narrow habits, and never permits individual prejudices or factional interests to warp its judgment or to control the powers of vision as a watchful sentinel who constantly on the alert for whatever may also enlighten, comfort, happiness or prosperity to the general public.

5. It designs to be a newspaper, in the broadest and best sense of the word, promptly and fairly reporting all local events of interest, and all market transactions, giving all the latest news by telegraph and the mail, and making its editorial a faithful record of the progress and spirit of the times at home and abroad.

So it has been, so it will be. We have reason to believe that the reading public of the Northwest appreciate an enterprise, conservative, carefully edited newspaper. We have the most substantial evidence of the fact. And in this, our Annual Announcement, we cannot say nothing better and nothing more than that the same intelligent, appreciative public which has given the Journal its support for so many years in the past will continue to do so in the future.

THE WEEKLY JOURNAL.

Is a cheap, large and carefully prepared general newspaper for the office, the farm, the workshop, and the family. It contains all the news of the week, and gives a large variety of literary, political, commercial and miscellaneous reading matter. It makes a specialty of Educational and School matters. It issues on Saturday the usual four-page sheet, a Supplement of two pages, filled with choice miscellaneous reading. The publication will market itself from all the commercial centers, and in one of the cheapest that has a wide circulation in the Northwest.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES.

Terms—Invariably in Advance. The Daily Journal, by mail (postage paid) $12 per annum; $1 per month. The Weekly Journal, published every other day, $5 per annum; by mail 60 cents per month. The Weekly Morning Journal, published every Wednesday morning, $1.25 per annum; postage paid.

Postmasters and agents may retain 10 per cent of all subscriptions sent by them. Money can be sent by Post Office Money Order, Registered Letter or Draft, at our risk. Address—EVENING JOURNAL, 100 and 105 Dearborn st., CHICAGO.

Petition to Sell Real Estate.

STATE OF ILLINOIS, ss. Macon County, ss. In the County Court of Macon county, December Term, A. D. 1918.

Frank L. Wood, administrator of the estate of Irene Branscatter, deceased, vs. Mary Spencer, James M. Walton, Charles Walton, Charles Branscatter, Charles H. Blodgett, Edith, Flora M. Walton and Mary L. Walton.

A FFIDAVIT of the non-residence of James M. Walton, Charles Branscatter and Flora M. Walton, defendants above-named, having been filed in the office of the clerk of the county court of said county of Macon, Notice is hereby given to you, the said James M. Walton, Charles Branscatter and Flora M. Walton, that the above-named Frank L. Wood, administrator of the estate of Irene Branscatter, late of said county, deceased, has filed his petition in said court to the August term, A. D. 1918, for the sale of real estate of the said deceased to pay debts of said estate; that said cause was continued to the September term, and then continued, and is now pending in the December term, A. D. 1918, of said court; that everyone who has a claim against said estate, or who is indebted to said estate, or who has any interest in said estate, unless you, the said James M. Walton, Charles Branscatter and Flora M. Walton, shall personally be and appear before said court at its next term, to be held at the court house, in the city of Decatur, in said county, on the third Monday in the month of December, next, to wit: December 9th, 1918, and answer to said petition, the same will be taken as confessed and a decree will be entered according to the said petition.

It is about time for candidates who propose to run for office at the next city election, to raise their hands. "The early bird catches the worm," and the fellow who is on time with his announcement is apt to gobble the office.

Yesterday was the bluest day of the season, and being Sunday the blue was more visible than it would have been on a working day. Thin congregations in the churches were a part of the result of the clouds and storm.

On Ash-street Nov. 25th you can get your beef, pork, turkeys, chickens and oysters, cheap for cash, at E. B. Pratt's, North Church street.

The Maria News says "The Maria News company has tendered a vote of thanks to the fire companies of Clinton and Decatur for the prompt manner in which they responded, respectively, to the call from this place on Wednesday."

Yesterday regular quarterly meeting services were held at the U. B. Church, Rev. L. Field, presiding elder, officiating, assisted by the pastor Rev. Mr. Chittenden. On account of the storm the attendance was not large, but the services were of a highly interesting character. The new pastor is giving the best of satisfaction, and the congregation is steadily increasing under his ministrations.

There was a little boarding-house row about a brunette at a domicile on North Water street last Friday morning, which ended in a stand up and knock down fight between a clerk and telegraph operator. The operator came off with flying colors, and the clerk, who has since changed his boarding place, wears his hat on one side of his head. No arrests.

One item concerning the North Street Church, Danville, was not accurate. Rev. N. P. Heath reported his salary at $1650 his last year, and Dr. Goodwin's was $1200 his first year—the same that Mr. Parker now gets. On account of the hard times Dr. Goodwin's salary the second year was reduced, but as the times are now better, and the charge in better condition than for many years, and as Mr. Parker's family is larger than the former pastor's, his salary very properly increased to the former amount. Our former item was misleading, and this correction is due to all parties.

Officers Paid.—Mayor Priest has signed the warrants for paying the police officers who were suspended by him, covering the time since they were reinstated by the council—the warrants for paying them during the actual time of their suspension have not been signed, the mayor claiming that he had the right under the charter to suspend, and that until they were reinstated they had no shadow of claim.

MACON COUNTY CIRCUIT COURT.

December Term, 1890.

MONDAY, DEC. 2d.

Court convened at 10 o'clock P. M., Judge W. K. Nelson presiding. The empanelling of grand and petit jurors, and the charge of the court to the former, occupied the first hour or more of the session, after which the call of the docket was proceeded with.

THIRTEEN YEARS AGO.—Chas. W. Manley, manager, etc., who will take the part of the "King of Tartary" in the play of Maseppa at the opera house to-night, is the same comedian who made so much fun for the boys—now grown old—in Powers' Hall thirteen years ago. It will be remembered that a certain minister, still living, attacked Manley and his company from his pulpit, denouncing the show as very immoral, and declared in the strongest terms that it was impossible for an actress to be a virtuous woman. It was a terrible slam at the company, and created much comment and a great deal of feeling. The upshot of the whole business was, Manley and his company got the sympathy of the people and played to crowded houses every night for three months. After the performances were over, Manley and the gentleman and ladies of the company were invited out to the private residences of leading citizens, (whose names could be given, if necessary,) and treated and feasted like ambassadors from a foreign clime. Manley is as full of fun as ever, and returns to Decatur after an absence of 18 years, anxious to meet his old friends and thank them again for their kindly courtesies and substantial aid.

DRAMATIC.—The beautiful and talented artist, Miss Fannie Louise Buckingham, makes her first appearance at the opera house to-night, in her wonderful impersonation of "Maseppa." The New York Herald thus speaks of Miss Buckingham and her entertainment as given at Niblo's Garden, in that city: "Miss Fannie Louise Buckingham, whose debut at the Broadway Theatre as 'Maseppa' was noticed in these columns at the beginning of last season, appeared in the same role at Niblo's Garden last evening. Miss Buckingham has gained in self confidence and familiarity with the stage since we saw her last, and now goes through her performance without any drawbacks arising from inexperience—she is not seen at her best until she appears with her 'dory, untamed steel.' 'James Melville,' led to his back, tearing up and down the backstage rocks, when she is the very picture of despair. Her figure and her riding are her strong points. The audience was enthusiastic, and gave cheer upon cheer when 'Maseppa' appeared at tent-door like a nymph surprised at the bath, and seizing two swords, with one in each hand, drove back the conspiring Tartars. At the end of the act the actress was called before the curtain.

VERY LIGHT.—The "Boarding House Troupe" played to a good house Saturday night, and kept the audience in a constant roar of laughter. Fitzpatrick as Gullpup, who wanted to fly away to the celestial realms above, but couldn't, owing to the magnetic influences of the earth, and Miss Manheim, got into so many ridiculous scrapes and got out again so easily, that the audience fairly roared with merriment. No doubt the dining room scene was true to life, it seemed very natural, but we don't remember ever hearing "hash" called out so loudly, waiter girls are generally a little faint, when they come to that word. Leonard Grover has a good company and a good play—for the kind.

Men's and children's suits, all prices and latest styles, at Elliott & Anderson's.

PASTORATE CLOSED.—Eld. N. S. Haynes, who has so faithfully and acceptably served the Christian church as its pastor during the last five years, has closed his labors with that congregation, though he will not remove from the city at present. Mr. Haynes has not only been much liked by his own people during his stay here, but he is held in high esteem by all both as a minister and citizen. All will regret to have him move from the city, which he will probably do as soon as he can dispose of his residence property.

RESOLUTIONS OF SYMPATHY.—The Sunday morning class at Stapp's Chapel, of which Mr. Wm. Bowers has been the faithful leader, passed the following resolution on Sunday morning:

Resolved, That in the bereavement of our leader, Bro. Wm. Bowers, we sincerely sympathize with him and pray that God will sustain him and his family under the sad dispensation of Providence.

Malignant and Subtleties.—The poison of Scrofula, and terrible are its ravages in the system. They may, however, be permanently stayed and the destructive virus expelled from the circulation with Scott's Emodin and Liver Syrup, a potent vegetable detergent, which eradicates all skin diseases, leaving no vestige of them behind. White swelling, salt rheum, tetter, abscesses, liver complaint, and eruptions of every description are invariably cured by it. Sold by S. M. Irwin, the Live Druggist, Decatur.

FUNERAL OF MRS. O. H. McBRIDE.

A large concourse of people gathered at Stapp's Chapel this forenoon at ten o'clock to attend the funeral of the lamented Mrs. Annie E. McBride, wife of Oliver H. McBride, and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Bowers. The services were conducted by Rev. S. MacBarny, assisted by Rev. F. N. Ewing and Rev. W. H. Prestley. The preliminary services consisted of singing, prayer, and the reading of appropriate selections of scripture, the singing being executed by Prof. Lutz and Dr. Bamstead, Mrs. A. W. Conklin and Mrs. S. Burgess, with Miss Dollie Millikin presiding at the organ. At the conclusion of the introductory exercises, Rev. S. MacBarny delivered an eminently appropriate and feeling discourse from the words, "She hath done what she could," in which the amiable character and useful life of deceased were commented upon in fitting terms. During the services many eyes in the audience moistened with tears, and a feeling of deep sympathy for the sorrow-stricken relatives seemed to pervade the entire audience. The floral decorations were of the most appropriate kind and were arranged with the most excellent taste, bespeaking on the part of those by whom they were brought, hearts deeply imbued with respect for the departed, and moved with tenderest sympathy for surviving friends. At the conclusion of the deeply impressive services at the church, the remains were borne to their final resting place in Greenwood Cemetery, followed by a large concourse of neighbors and friends.

"STRAIGHTENED OUT."

We would most respectfully call the attention of the public in general to our stock of Diamonds, Watches, Chains, Clocks, Jewelry, solid and silver-plated Ware, etc. We have just completed the repairs which have been in progress for the last three weeks, and now occupy the whole store, where we always have been. We have on hand the largest and most complete stock in the state of Illinois, outside of Chicago. Our stock consists of everything kept by first-class Jewelers. We would like also to add that our stock being bought in large quantities, and only for cash, we are enabled to give prices lower than ever before. We will be pleased to have everybody call and see our goods and prices, whether you want to buy or not—we will always take pleasure in showing you goods and prices. Remember you will have at our store from which to make your selections, twice the assortment you will be able to find in the combined stocks of Jewelry in Decatur. Come and see the goods and prices. Respectfully, CHAS. & EDWIN JEWELERS, 27 E. Main st., Decatur, Ill.

TABERNACLE SOCIETY.—The various committees connected with the thanksgiving temperance society, met at the First House parlor on Friday evening, Nov. 29th, D. L. Bunn, chairman, Dr. J. S. King, secretary. The several committees reported, bills were presented and allowed. The treasurer of the committee, Theo. Nelson, reported the total receipts to have been $252.50, total expenses $17.00, leaving a balance of $235.50 on hand, which amount was ordered to be paid over to the treasurer of the tabernacle. On motion, the thanks of the committee were returned to the ladies and gentlemen who discoursed sweet music on the occasion; to the press of the city for notices made gratuitously; to J. H. Lewis for dishes furnished, and to the public for their liberal patronage. On motion, the secretary was instructed to have this much of the proceedings of the meeting published in the city papers.

DELICIOUS PERFUMES.

Dr. Price has prepared a rich variety of perfumes, from which the most fastidious can select an odor with agreeable satisfaction. Dr. Price's Petal Rose, Meadow Flowers, and other perfumes, are great favorites, as their sweetness and freshness are so decided.

DIED.

At his late residence, near Haverstock, on the 29th of November, Mrs. Anna LAYMON, aged 70 years.

Mr. L. has been a resident of this community since 1820, having lived during that time on the same farm. He leaves a son and daughter, the former living on the homestead farm and the latter in Kansas. The funeral took place on Saturday, November 30th. Deceased was a highly respected member of the M. E. Church, and was greatly esteemed as an honorable and upright citizen.

In this city, on Saturday evening, WILLIAM DENNIS, youngest child of Thomas and Susie Sanderson, aged two months.

LIVER IS KING.

The liver is the imperial organ of the whole human system, as it controls the life, health and happiness of man. When it is disturbed in its proper action, all kinds of ailments are the natural result. The digestion of food, the movements of the heart and blood, the action of the brain and nervous system, are all immediately connected with the workings of the liver. It has been successfully proved that Green's August Flower is unequalled in curing all persons afflicted with Dyspepsia or Liver Complaint, and all the numerous symptoms that result from an unhealthy condition of the liver and stomach. Sample bottles to try, 10 cents. Positively sold in all towns on the Western Continent. Three doses will prove that it is just what you want. Aug. 9-d&w

Geo. Powers, of Jacksonville, arrived in the city on Saturday night.

Mr. D. P. Keller, of Macon, visited Decatur for a short time to-day.

Capt. Joab Wilkinson, of Niantic, made himself visible in Decatur to-day.

Miss Minnie Parker returned to Champaign at noon to-day.

Leonard Glover's "Boarding House" troupe left for Lincoln at noon to-day where they will show to-night.

Hon. R. H. Woodcock, chairman of the Board of Supervisors, favored us with a brief call this morning.

Dr. R. Tooley, of Blue Mound, was a caller at the Republican office this afternoon.

The Fannie Louise Buckingham Company came in yesterday morning from Lafayette, and registered at the St. Nicholas.

J. E. Mohle, business agent for the Wallace Sisters, gave the ILLINOIS office a call to-day.

James Liechtenberger, of Whitmore township, at the opening of court this afternoon, was appointed foreman of the grand jury.

Mrs. Kimball, mother of the editor of the Star, who has been in the city for a week past visiting her son, returned to Danville on the noon train.

P. A. Green and Prior Moore, two colored ministers preached at the African M. E. Church yesterday, the former in the morning and the latter in the evening.

Mrs. Geo. W. Emmons left for Quincy Saturday afternoon, to be absent a week or ten days, on a visit to her brother, Capt. Fullinsbee, formerly chief of police of that stirring river town.

Made Branscombe, the beautiful actress, whose cabinet portrait is on exhibition in nearly every book store in the country, dined with her husband at the St. Nicholas yesterday.

Fred Smith is always in luck. No sooner is he out of the grocery business than his name appears in the list of petit jurors for the first two weeks of the December term of court. Fred is seldom out of a job.

Rev. G. S. Allen, of California, the flame-looking temperance advocate who was here with Murphy last October, spent Sunday in Decatur, and left to-day for Lincoln, where he is looked for a temperance speech to-night.

Corbelle Hippolite is the name of the man now on the streets afflicted with "St. Vitus' Dance," and begging from door to door, he bids from Chicago. It is questionable whether a man in his condition should be permitted to go at large frightening women and children.

Dr. J. S. King was summoned to Tolono this morning by telegram to attend upon Mr. J. H. Talbot, who is laboring under temporary insanity, which it is thought has been induced by the mortification experienced on account of having been suspected of larceny and having his trunk searched by an officer.

Dr. W. J. Chenoweth returned from Morley, Mo., to-day, after an absence of two weeks. He left the hunting party in excellent health, and enjoying the delights of a hunting expedition hugely.

Packard, Harry and Shellbarger are the crack shots of the party. The doctor brought home about one hundred pounds of fish, and expresses himself very much pleased with his trip.

A PROBLEM LONG SINCE SOLVED.

How to remedy those profligate causes of disease, an impoverished circulation and an impaired digestion, was a problem the solution of which had often baffled medical skill, but which was solved over a quarter of a century ago by the introduction of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters to public and professional notice. Since that time, which may well be said to have initiated a new epoch in the history of medicine, the remedy and preventive referred to has obtained a foothold in the confidence of the American people that each succeeding year has only served to strengthen. It is recognized throughout the Union as a tonic of the first order, a remedy for and sure means of preventing fever and ague, and disorders of the stomach and bowels, as a reliable means of reforming a disordered state of the liver, and of counteracting a tendency to rheumatism, gout, urinary and uterine disorders.

EVENING JOURNAL.

ANNOUNCEMENT FOR 1879.

A Reliable Local, Political, Commercial and General Newspaper.

THE CHICAGO EVENING JOURNAL, Daily, Tri-Weekly and Weekly, commands itself to the Western reading public for the reasons following:

1. It publishes all the news of the day from all parts of the country and the world.

2. It is a faithful exponent of the interests of the people, and of the best sense and sentiment of local and general politics.

3. It is a source of information, and is to be trusted in its statements, and in its opinions, and in its character and quality of its contents.

4. It has no narrow hobbies, and never permits individual prejudices or factional interests to warp its judgment or to contract the powers of vision as a watchful sentinel, who constantly on the alert for whatever may give enlightenment, happiness or prosperity to the people.

5. It designs to be a Newspaper, in the broadest and best use of the word; promptly and fully reporting all local events of interest, and all market transactions, giving all the latest general news by telegraph and mail, and making its columns a faithful index of the progress and spirit of the times at home and abroad.

6. It has been so it will be. We have reason to believe that the reading public of the Northwest appreciates an enterprising, conservative, carefully edited newspaper. We have the most substantial evidence of the fact, and in this our Annual Announcement, we cannot do better than say nothing more than that the same intelligent, appreciative public which has given this Journal its support for so many years in the past will continue to do so in the future.

is a cheap, large and carefully edited general newspaper, for the office, the farm, the workshop and the family. It contains all the news of the week, and gives a large variety of literary, political, commercial and miscellaneous reading matter, makes a specialty of Educational and School matters. It issues, in addition to the usual four-page sheet, a Supplement of two pages, filled with choice miscellaneous reading. It publishes full market reports from all the commercial centers, and is one of the cheapest and best of all the Weekly Newspapers in the United States.
